Oxford, CT (June 6, 2018) - From Nature With Love's blog, The Natural Beauty Workshop (www.naturalbeautyworkshop.com), has been awarded the highest accolade in the Bluehost Spotlight Awards.

"It is truly an honor to be recognized for combining my years of natural skin care and online community experience on The Natural Beauty Workshop," said Mary Helen Leonard, editor of The Natural Beauty Workshop. "The Bluehost platform enables us to serve both as a venue to share resources and information with our valued friends and customers and also provides a way for our customers to share their thoughts and feedback with us in a friendly, welcoming environment."

Bluehost is a cloud-based solution provider, with services including web hosting, eCommerce tools, marketing applications, and more. Entries were judged on overall creativity and originality; overall look, design, grammar, and professionalism; and the use of WordPress themes, plugins and technology.
